The property is also conveniently positioned within the reduced fee catchment area for the renowned independent Blundells School.

Inside, the accommodation is light and airy, with immaculate and stylish décor. There are several original features, including exposed timber beams to some parts of the house, and original fireplaces in two of the reception rooms. A welcoming and bright reception hall with elm board flooring leads you through to the ground floor accommodation. The main reception room is the well-proportioned sitting room which has a handsome fireplace fitted with a woodburning stove and doors opening onto the sunny conservatory that provides additional reception space and doors leading onto the terrace. There is also a spacious formal dining room that features French doors that also open onto the flagged terrace. The kitchen and breakfast room has farmhouse-style cream units to base and wall level, black granite worktops, a central island, an Aga and modern integrated units. There is also space for a breakfast table. Steps lead down to the large sun room with space for dining that enjoys access and wonderful views over the garden. Adjoining the kitchen is a boot room and a separate utility room that provides further space for storage and household appliances. The ground floor accommodation is completed by a modern cloakroom.

There are three well-presented double bedrooms on the first floor, as well as an office, which could be used as a further bedroom if required. The generous principal bedroom has an en suite shower, washbasin and WC, while one of the further bedrooms is also en suite. The first floor is serviced by a modern family bathroom and a separate WC, with a further bathroom and two more double bedrooms found on the second floor.

Outside

A gravel driveway leads to the front of the property while continuing round the side and to the rear, over original cobbles, to a double garage and a parking area for several vehicles. The rear garden has paved and gravel terracing which creates ideal spaces for al fresco dining and entertaining and provides wonderful vantage points to admire the far reaching views down the Exe Valley. The property sits in approximately 2.14 acres of grounds that include well maintained rolling lawns and colourful border flowerbeds, with a variety of established shrubs and mature trees, and views across the surrounding countryside. The grounds also include a greenhouse and a useful workshop.
