The property

Dating from circa 1820, 2 Crossmead Villas is an elegant Georgian family home forming part of a row of three Grade II listed properties. The property has been sympathetically renovated throughout with high quality materials, fixtures and fittings, and retains a wealth of original period features including French doors, sash windows, original shutters, high ceilings and fine cornicing. The Portland stone front steps lead to the entrance lobby with feature tiled flooring and an adjacent powder room, through to an impressive reception hall. The ground floor comprises a generous drawing room, with a feature fireplace with wood burner and two sets of shuttered French doors providing a wealth of natural light and access onto a beautiful balustraded veranda.

The large kitchen/breakfast room has a range of bespoke solid oak wall and base units, granite worktops including a feature central island with breakfast bar, a gas fired Aga and modern integrated appliances. There is space for a seating area and a table at the end of the kitchen which has a full height and width bay window and French doors that open out onto the garden terrace. Adjoining the kitchen there is a well-appointed boot room which also leads onto the garden. The dining room adjoins the kitchen and has ample fitted cupboards for storage and shuttered French doors.

The first floor, accessed via the original Georgian staircase, offers a spacious landing, four double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from bespoke fitted wardrobes and the fourth bedroom benefiting from French doors that open onto a balcony. There is a spacious family bathroom with a free-standing roll top bath and a separate shower.

On the lower ground floor is a self-contained annexe, which has its own independent access, as well as being accessible from an internal staircase within the main house. The annexe has been beautifully refurbished and provides a sitting room with a feature fireplace and a double bedroom, both benefitting from large sash windows with views over the front lawn. There is also a fitted kitchen, bathroom and two large storage cupboards. The annexe offers excellent opportunity for multi-generational living or income potential subject to obtaining the necessary consents.
